Currently, there is no limitation to the dollar amount awarded, but Sheriff Delain states if the application is asking for $2,500 or more, they are required to complete the Program Budget Report. Discussion if additional funds are needed by current applicants, they are welcome to re-submit a new application to cover a shortfall or request additional funds. District Attorney Lasee states it should be communicated that if an award is made through the Foundation, those applicants could seek additional funds from the Funding Board.
